

Thessaloniki Event

The Northern Greece Branch of the American - Hellenic Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Interbalkan Institute for Educational and Economic Development and the support of the U.S. Consulate General in Thessaloniki organized a presentation-discussion titled 'Characteristics of a Dynamic Organization' on Monday 13 October at the U.S. Consulate. The speaker, Mr. Bill Lewis, is the President of Extension Management, an Arkansas based consultancy. He is a highly-experienced executive coach and mentor, an "organizational doctor" as he put it. Mr. Lewis stressed the importance of having a passion to win, having a clear mission and objectives, communicating these to employees, being a good leader, and measuring performance.
